

SQUELCH ATTEMPT TO BREAK 1 O'CLOCK LAW

Cafe de Paris Defiance Is Short-Lived When Police Appear on Scene.

An attempt by the management of the Cafe de Paris at Broadway and Forty-second street to run a cabaret show after 1 o'clock this morning was promptly squelched by the police. A lawyer representing the Cafe de

Paris called at Headquarters a few days ago and tried to get permission to run the cabaret feature after 1 o'clock in the morning. He was informed that the order issued by Mayor Gaynor to the police last April, that all restaurants and saloons not holding all-night licenses must close at 1 o'clock, is still in force. The lawyer said he did not think the order would stand and that he would advise his clients to run their show after 1 o'clock in the morning. Word reached Inspector Titus yesterday that the Cafe de Paris management had decided to run the cabaret after 1 o'clock this morning. He reported to Headquarters and Deputy Commissioner Newburger was sent to the Cafe de Paris last night. He told the management that the place must close at 1 o'clock and the place was closed at 1 o'clock.

GAVE BABY TO A BOY- GUESS THE ANSWER?

Psaw! the Woman Never Came Back, You Say? Well, You're Wrong.

"You look like a noble, handsome, trustworthy boy," said a woman to a youth at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and Lenox avenue late yesterday afternoon. "You just hold my baby for me while I do my shopping and I'll buy you a lollipop when I come out."

"Make it two lollipops and I'll go you," said Freddie Rich, eleven, of No. 2,000 Madison avenue, grabbing the baby. "Huh!" said Mrs. Anna Rich to her son, half an hour later. "A woman asked you to mind the baby, did she? It's an old story. Here, officer, take us and this foundling to the nearest police station."
"A foundling?" cried Mrs. Frederick Ehrhardt, of No. 2, Andover street, in the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station, a few minutes after. "Why, that's my own darling, dear, sweet eight-month-old boy, I think of calling sweetums a foundling!"
